

Across

3. Type of Ceiling use in sound control
5. a growth of minute fungi forming on a surface, commonly as a downy or furry coating, and associated with decay or dampness
10. the openings at the bottom edge of windows that allow water to drain out of the window channel (weep holes are designed to allow the relief of moisture or water)
12. protection for you, to your client, on inspections following your SOP
14. Texas Association of Real Estate Inspectors
15. Readily Seen, Visible, Obvious

Down

1. American Society of Home Inspectors
2. Attorney fighting for home inspectors nationally to fight claims
4. International Association of Certified Home Inspectors
6. Seminar offered by Joseph Ferry
7. a horizontal member of a structure used to support other structural members
8. Inspection E&O Insurance Company with MORE to offer!
9. any board or molding covering an interior wall where it meets the floor
11. Liability Protection for Business from Claims
13. a space under the roof of a structure but limited to above the top story of a section of a building. may not be passable