Exton, PA, August 19, 2008 – Elite MGA, LLC. a leader in full coverage insurance policies, announces the launch of www.eipro.com, the website for Elite InspectInsure, an exclusive E & O (Errors and Omissions) insurance website, specifically designed to meet the needs of Home Inspectors. Some of Elite MGA's relationships include a number of associations including but not limited to: InterNACHI, ASHI, NAHI, TAREI and more. Elite MGA has the unparalleled advantage in a mature and experienced management team that has direct knowledge of the industry, extensive research and experience as well as professional administration skills that make Elite MGA a top competitor in the field of insurance.

"In our first 6 months of business, we've already made a name for ourselves as one of the top providers of E and O insurance policies online," stated Christopher Naylor, CEO of Elite MGA. "With the addition of the eipro.com website we intend to offer home inspectors a well priced, convenient way to purchase the errors and omissions insurance that they need to protect their businesses." What's so special about this website? "The www.eipro.com site is dedicated to meeting the needs of the home inspector exclusively! We want to offer them information specific to each state about regulations and courses available, and we want to offer them discounts on associations and other services which benefit the home inspection market."

Inspectors and others can get a free quote by visiting the website at and completing a few brief questions. Elite Inspect Insure is continually adding new services like termite liability protection, as well as surety bonding and workers compensation in many states. In addition, the site promotes a valuable seminar accepted in many states for CE credits called Law and Disorder by Joseph Ferry, Esq. Joe is a Philadelphia lawyer with a national practice representing professional home inspectors and counseling them on a variety of legal matters, including defense of claims, contract matters, professional insurance matters and general business advice.
